

Freedom Church – Person Specification

Role: Children’s and Families’ Pastor

The applicant for the Children’s and Families’ Pastor should be experienced in working with children and will endeavor to engage and support their families - serving them throughout their discipleship journey. The applicant will do this through creative Bible teaching, establishing opportunities for them to thrive in the wider church community and activities, as well as ensuring that their pastoral needs are appropriately met. The ideal candidate will be a well-organised team leader that enjoys recruiting, resourcing and discipling volunteers, as well as working alongside the staff team to navigate the rhythms of church life.

The applicant will need to be a confident communicator and an able administrator to deliver teaching, training and vision to both children and adults. They will need to be a reliable and trustworthy person with a good knowledge of, and ability to sensitively implement the safeguarding policy at Freedom Church.

In accordance with the Equality Act of 2010 it is an occupational requirement that you would be a practising Christian. We would also ask that you are, or are willing to become, a committed member of Freedom Church.
