Things for you to do:

When you colour this in what could you add? Here are some ideas:

- Fish and boats in the seas (Maybe sharks? And whales too?)
- Trees and animals on the land (Which animals are your favourites?)
- Birds and angels in the air (And how about superheroes?)

Things to do with your family:

What does this picture and the writing above it remind you of? Tell your grown up and then:

- Ask your grown-up what the rest of this verse from the Bible says and what it means. What does your grown-up think about it? What do they think about Jesus, God's son?
- God loves the WHOLE WORLD! Choose two of the things you've drawn which you would most like to thank God for. Write or draw them invisibly on your hand using your finger and then raise your hand in the air for Father God to look at. Let your grown-up have a turn too.

Jesus said to his disciples,
"Do this in remembrance of me."

Things for you to do:

When you colour this in what could you add? Here are some ideas:

- Some plates of your favourite foods
- The name of Jesus and any of the disciples' names that you know
- A bowl of water and a towel from when Jesus washed his disciples' feet

Things to do with your family:

- Ask your grown up what they tend to think about whenever they have communion bread and wine.
- Have a turn at thanking Father God for your family's food the next time you have a meal together.
